Dear Dr. McAllister:

I am writing to request current information on the Project Grants offered by your organization. I would appreciate a description of your program interests and, if available, application guidelines and forms and a listing of the awards made during the past fiscal year.

This office acts as a central source of information for faculty, staff, and students who seek external funding to support their research and training efforts. Any information you can provide will be much appreciated.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
